Reflection on the Sunday Gospel by Deacon Jim Kay

This is the 4th Sunday in Lent known as 'Laetare Sunday'. Laetare means Rejoice! It is taken from Isaiah 66 and used in the Entrance Antiphon; 'Rejoice Jerusalem and all who love her. Be joyful, all who were in mourning; exult and be satisfied at her consoling breast'. This is indeed a fanfare call to be happy, the season of Lent is half over, Spring flowers and birdsong lift our spirits and we can afford ourselves a glimpse of the Joy that is Our Lord's Resurrection at Easter.

Our first reading though, taken from the end of Chronicles, is a reminder of the weakness and frailty of our human nature. Despite all that God has done for them, the Israelites are again turning their backs on God and adopting all the bad practices and habits of their pagan neighbours. They did not listen to the prophet Jeremiah and in 605BC were invaded, captured and taken in exile to Babylon for 70 years. Psalm 136 recalls how the Jewish nation were asked to sing their songs 'By the Rivers of Babylon' but could not. This psalm at least, was made popular and sung many times by Boney-M in 1978!

But our loving God is a merciful God and St Paul reminds us that 'when we were dead through our sins, God brought us to life with Christ'. This is the joyful message that Jesus is teaching Nicodemus in our Gospel reading from John. Nicodemus is a leading Pharisee and comes to Jesus at night, so as not to be seen. We know Jesus spared no criticism of the Pharisees and openly declared them hypocrites, but here Nicodemus is irresistibly drawn to Jesus, maybe against his better judgement and certainly without his peer-group knowing. Nicodemus comes to Jesus and hears that 'God loved the world so much that he gave his only Son, so that everyone who believes in him may not be lost but may have eternal life!' As we continue our Lenten journey, perhaps think about Nicodemus in the week ahead and ask ourselves; Can I feel God calling? Is it a call I would rather answer at night or can I come out into the light and rejoice in my faith openly and without fear? Let's pray for that grace.

On this 'Rejoice Sunday' we can celebrate all our Mothers too and God's gift of families. Happy Mothering Sunday!

ST JOSEPH - Below is another prayer to St Joseph found by a parishioner in the Shrewsbury Diocesan Year Book.

The Heavenly Father chose you St Joseph,
to be the husband of the Holy Mother of God,
and to watch over His only begotten Son, Our Lord Jesus Christ.

In times of trial and in times of joy pray for us so that we too can recognise the loving plan of our eternal Father, who always works for the good of those who love Him.

Teach us Guardian of the Holy Family to be attentive to the promptings of the Holy Spirit, and to draw close to our dear Lord in all the circumstances of our life.
and especially in the mystery of the Holy Eucharist.

When we die pray for us that we may happily join you, the just and faithful servant, to praise God in the company of Our Lady and all the faithful departed.
We make our prayer in Jesus' name.
Amen

Prayer Resource for March: month of Saint Joseph

Diocesan Prayer:

The Heavenly Father chose you, Saint Joseph, to be the husband of the Holy Mother of God, and to watch over His only begotten Son, our Lord Jesus Christ. In times of joy and trial, pray for us so that we too can recognise the loving plan of the Eternal Father, who always works for the good of those who love Him.

Teach us, Guardian of the Holy Family, to be attentive to the promptings of the Holy Spirit; and to draw closer to the Lord Jesus in all the circumstances of our lives and, above all, in the mystery of the Holy Eucharist.

At the last, pray for us that we may happily join you, the just and faithful servant, to praise God forever in the company of Our Lady and all the saints.

Through the same Jesus Christ our Lord.
Amen.

Prayer of Pope Francis:

Hail, Guardian of the Redeemer,
Spouse of the Blessed Virgin Mary.
To you God entrusted his only Son;
in you Mary placed her trust;
with you Christ became man.

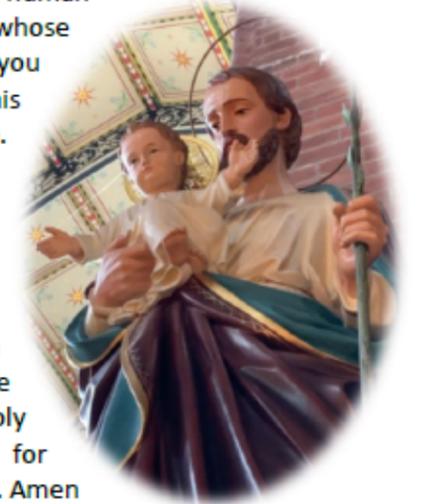

Blessed Joseph, to us too,
show yourself a father
and guide us in the path of life.
Obtain for us grace, mercy, and courage,
and defend us from every evil. Amen.

Gift Aid Scheme 2021/22

As I mentioned last week the offertory envelopes for this tax year are here. I had hoped they would be ready to distribute this weekend, but unfortunately they aren't but will be ready for next weekend 20th/21st March. I am in the office next Thursday and Friday, so if you are calling up to the graveyard or passing church and want to collect from the presbytery, then please just give me a knock. If you could call between 10am and 1pm I will be there.

The new yellow envelopes start on Sunday 11th April 2021 for the new tax year. Please do not use before this date. If you are no longer paying Income Tax please let Jayne, Parish Secretary, know as soon as possible. Either by telephone on 0151 721 3035 or via the parish e-mail. We must adhere to the Inland Revenue rules for operating our Gift Aid Scheme. Also, if you have changed address since the last tax year, could you also please let Jayne know so that we can keep the Diocesan central records up to date?

Do you pay Income Tax and donate cash each Sunday into the loose plate? If you do, please consider joining the Gift Aid Scheme as the Diocese can claim 25p back from the Government for every £1 you donate at no cost to you! There is at least £2,000 from the Loose Plate that we could potentially claim back each year. All you need to do is to sign one form declaring that you are a taxpayer and then decide whether to donate by a bank standing order (second form) or by weekly envelopes. The required forms are available by contacting Jayne in the office or download from the website. If you need any further information to help you to decide whether or not to join the Gift Aid Scheme please do not hesitate to contact the office.

A number of parishioners have changed from offertory envelopes to now paying by standing order. If you have done this, thank you. You will not need to collect any envelopes.
