The Gloria

Glory to God in the highest, and on earth peace to people of good will.
 We praise you,
 we bless you,
 we adore you,
 we glorify you,
 we give you thanks for your great glory,
 Lord God, heavenly King,
 O God, almighty Father.
 Lord Jesus Christ, Only Begotten Son, Lord God, Lamb of God,
 Son of the Father,
 you take away the sins of the world,
 have mercy on us;
 you take away the sins of the world,
 receive our prayer;
 you are seated at the right hand of the Father, have mercy on us.
 For you alone are the Holy One,
 you alone are the Lord, you alone are the Most High,
 Jesus Christ,
 with the Holy Spirit,
 in the glory of God the Father. Amen.

The Apostles Creed

I believe in God, the Father Almighty, Creator of heaven and earth, and in Jesus Christ, his only Son our Lord, (At the words that follow, up to and including 'the Virgin Mary', all bow) who was conceived by the Holy Spirit born of the Virgin Mary, suffered under Pontius Pilate, was crucified, died and was buried;
 he descended into hell;
 on the third day he rose again from the dead; he ascended into heaven, and is seated at the right hand of God the Father almighty; from there he will come to judge the living and the dead.

I believe in the Holy Spirit, the holy catholic Church,
 the communion of saints,
 the forgiveness of sins,
 the resurrection of the body,
 and life everlasting.
Amen

From Fr Francis: In the Gospel of today we hear the conclusion of the "Bread of Life discourse" and this section of John's Gospel is sometimes called the "crisis of Eucharist". Jesus had just delivered the central teaching concerning the gift of his body and blood as a source of life to all, and how we must eat his flesh and drink his blood to have true life within us. If that teaching were only symbolic, it would not have offended those followers as St John tells us that some of those who listened to Jesus turned away at this point and followed him no longer.

Belief in the Real Presence, that bread and wine become the Body and Blood of Christ, presents a moment of crisis for some Christians in every age. We are challenged by Jesus to renew our faith in the Divine Presence, Body and Blood, Soul and Divinity, in the Holy Eucharist just as he challenged his chosen disciples to reaffirm their faith and trust in him.

Spiritual Communion is a Christian practice of desiring union with Jesus Christ in the Eucharist even when one is unable to receive Our Lord sacramentally because of distance or for some other reason.

Act of Spiritual Communion

My Jesus, I believe that you are present in the Most Blessed Sacrament. I love you above all things, and I desire to receive you into my soul. Since I cannot at this moment receive you sacramentally, come at least spiritually into my heart. I embrace you as if you were already there and unite myself wholly to you. Never permit me to be separated from you. Amen. (St Alphonsus Liguori).

Recently Deceased: Please pray for the departed souls of Florence Eckles, Norah Waring and Sheila Wooldridge. May they rest in peace. Please keep their loved ones in your prayers.

Newsletter: Please remember to take your copy of the newsletter home with you after the Mass.
