

Image Credit: <http://goo.gl/P2cQe>

"Amen, I say to you, whatever you did for one of the least brothers of mine, you did for me."

In this Sunday's Gospel (Matthew 25:31-46), Jesus calls his disciples to see the needs of the people around them and to respond with care, dignity and love. In caring for the hungry, the poor, the ill and the imprisoned, we show our love for Christ.

Today, we celebrate the Solemnity of Our Lord Jesus Christ the King – the last Sunday of our liturgical year. Before beginning Advent and a new Church year next Sunday, take some time to review this past year, focusing on ways you have shown your love for God by being more loving to family and friends.

For More Fun:

- ✓ Look for a chance this week to feed the hungry or care for the poor in your community this week. Many parishes offer Thanksgiving Food Drives – this is the perfect chance to show our care!
- ✓ This week, we celebrate the Presentation of the Blessed Virgin Mary and the life of St. Cecilia (11/22). Learn more about the lives of the saints at www.Saints.SQPN.com.
- ✓ Support our ministry this week by purchasing Lisa Hendey's new book: A Book of Saints for Catholic Moms at Amazon, Barnes & Noble or your local Catholic bookstore. Thank you for your support!
- ✓ We love to hear from you! . Email me at lisa@catholicmom.com to let me know where you live and where you go to Church!

“The Lord is my shepherd, there is nothing I shall want.”