Christmas Reflections 2016: by Tony Topping available in both porches.

From Fr Paul....

Only seven more sleeps till Christmas – so the children in school tell me. Don't panic! But I am panicking because there is so much to do! Presents, cards, food – cooking a meal for 19 people. The Fourth Week of Advent invites us to be still and to wait in joyful hope for the one who is coming as Wonder Counsellor, Mighty God, Prince of Peace. Today's Gospel reading focuses on Joseph, the faithful servant who embraced God's plan no matter what the cost. Let us pray that Joseph will help us to slow down and hear the voice of Immanuel – God with us.

TIMES AND DATES FOR SERVICES OVER THE CHRISTMAS PERIOD:

You will find in your benches a Christmas card from myself and Deacon Michael. It contains the times of services from Christmas Eve, 24th December, up to Sunday 8th January 2017. Please keep it handy and save on your phone bill!

We are short of some Readers over the Christmas Eve and Day Masses – there is a list in the sanctuary for you to sign up – I would be most grateful.

Last Friday saw a wonderful Carol Service in our Church. It was great to see so many parishioners and our neighbours in Neston. The choirs were fabulous! We must also be very proud of the children in our school who added that little sparkle to the occasion.

This Wednesday, our school children will be coming to Church at 9.10 am for their end of term Mass. It is a lovely opportunity for our Parish to welcome them and join them in prayer.

After that there will only be 4 sleeps till Christmas Day.

I would like to take the opportunity to thank all the staff at our school – especially our Head Teacher, Mrs Dawn Ormes, the Staff and the Governing Body for generously giving of their time and we wish them a blessed Christmas and enjoyable holiday.

On Christmas Eve, the Church will not be open until 5pm prior to Carol Service and First Mass of Christmas. I am told that it generally gets very busy – so come early!

THANK YOUS:

A special thank you to the church decorators and crib team who have brought Christmas cheer to our beautiful church. We are so grateful for their time and commitment, and their efforts, I am sure, are greatly appreciated by all.

Also many thanks to all who have contributed to our Christmas preparations: our Cleaners, Flower Team, Choir and Musicians, Readers and Eucharistic Ministers, Sacristans, Altar Servers, Little Church, Hall Managers, Counters, Web Team, Gardeners, Ushers and all our groups: SVP, YSVP, CWL & SPUC. We are blessed with such a committed parish!

A TIME TO REMEMBER AND A TIME TO RECALL:

By the Lady Chapel there is a tree of lights along with some tags. These are available for you if you wish to write the names of departed loved ones whom you want to remember in a special way. Add the tags to the branches of the tree. This is the last newsletter until January 2017. The intentions for Mass, during this Christmas Season will be on both notice boards as you enter the church. I would like to take this opportunity to thank the editing group who has the task of putting the newsletter together each week – do enjoy your little break!

As always, be assured of my prayers, Fr Paul

Last Sunday's Offering Thank you for your support.

Fr Paul writes... It has been a very busy week but one of great blessing Firstly the work men have left the house!!!! I only have a few boxes to empty. Earlier in the week our Primary School had its Christmas Fair. As usual I arrived late but I did manage to have a bag of chips. It is wonderful to see all the staff of the school and the Parents Association working so hard for the benefit of the children. It was good to see so many grandparents and other mums and dads entering into the fun.

A reminder for your diary. Our LPA Reconciliation Service during Advent will take place here at 7pm on 14 December. All are welcome On Friday 16 December our Children will be leading our Ecumenical Carol Service starting at 7.30pm All are welcome. Also on Monday 19 December there will be a full rehearsal for school Carol Service which will take place at 6.30pm. Many of you would not like to be out at night so come along to the rehearsal which is at 10.30am. it promises to be a wonderful event.

I have a particular affection for the SVP. On Wednesday I was invited by them, to the 'Christmas Lunch' with many of our senior members of our Parish community. What an event! Between good food, company, laughter and a sing song what else could you ask for. Speaking of singing...our newest parishioner stole the show with his rendering of There's a 'hole in the bucket'. Some of the gathering were queueing for his autograph and saying he should so on 'Has Britain Got Talent'. When he was asked for a comment he simply shied away Well that is the sort of man he is. My only problem is that I can't remember his name! Next weekend is "Bring a Poinsettia to Mass". If you can it will help with the decoration of the Church for Christmas. As the days seem to speed up let us all try to give a little time over to the Lord. In preparation for this great Feast. With my Prayers. Fr Paul

Last Sunday's Offering: Thank you for your support.

Fr Paul writes: Just a reminder that the new time of Holy Mass and Reconciliation take place from this Monday. The change is to enable our 'Mass goers' the opportunity to come to church a little later so that they can avoid the frozen paths, roads and cars. And, avoid the school run. Some Morning Mass parishioners have suggested that we change the Mass times from winter to summer when the clocks change and change from summer to winter in October. We will give these Mass times a go and reflect later in the year. Can I remind our Readers and Eucharistic ministers that the new guide lines will also start this weekend. If you need a copy see Fr Paul. Next Wednesday will continue our Advent Journey. This reflection will take place after our 7.00pm Mass. All are welcome! You may have noticed that the stairs going up to the organ loft have been closed. Our diocesan insurance company have insisted its closure as it is in breach of safety. You will have noticed that many of the trees have been pruned or cut down. Once again we have followed the advice of our insurers. As you enter the car park on the right hand side you will notice a half size container. This has been placed there to store such things as Christmas decorations, tools etc which are used from time to time.

There is never enough time in the week to complete tasks. I have learnt that to be 'task' orientated is not necessarily a good thing. Sometimes you must let go and allow the Lord to lead us forward. As we enter the Second week of this Holy Season of Advent let us give the Lord space and spend a little time in prayer to allow Him to calm the noise, worry and business that lie within. Have a good week and know you are in my daily prayer.

Fr Paul writes: It is with sadness that I announce the death of Mrs Stella Casson. Stella, as you would know, is one of our "younger parishioners" aged 102 years of age! Just over a week ago I visited her at Whetstone Hey Care Home. Listening to her and looking at her, you would have thought she was a woman in her seventies. Stella was a woman of great fun and a woman of deep faith. Stella's funeral Mass will be on Friday at 2.00pm.

This weekend we begin our journey from darkness to light. To help us on our Advent journey there will be an opportunity to reflect on the scriptures of this Holy Season. These reflections will take place on Wednesday evenings at 7.30pm and will end no later than 8.45pm. Would anyone like to help with tea or coffee? There may be a few biscuits!!! There is also an opportunity for Holy Mass preceding the reflections at 7.00pm.

At our weekend Masses, starting from Saturday 3 December the Blessed Sacrament will be placed upon the altar from 5.45 - 6.20pm. During this time, I will be available for the Sacrament of Reconciliation. On Sunday mornings, the Blessed Sacrament will be placed upon the altar from 8.10-8.40am and from 9.00-10.40am. Once again, Reconciliation will be available before Mass. During this time of quiet prayer before the Lord, we have an opportunity to open our hearts to allow the light of Christ lead us through the Season of Advent to the Second coming of the Lord.

Next weekend our attention will be drawn to our Baptismal Creed. We will all have an opportunity to sign ourselves with the Water that gives life. At our 10.45am Mass we will be welcoming two 'little people' who are to be baptised in the font- the baptism of these youngsters will be a visual reminder of the Lord's unconditional love for us all.

From Monday 5th December, the new arrangements for weekday Mass will come into effect. We will review these new Mass times towards the Spring.

The minutes from our recent meeting of Eucharistic ministers/readers are available in the sacristy- these also include practical guidance for their ministry here in church. I'm sure we will be well into the swing of things by the time Christmas comes along! Let us pray for one another during this Holy Season of Advent and please be assured of my prayers for you all at our daily Mass.

Last Sunday's Offering: Thank you for your generous support.

A Game of Chess

The pen is mightier than the sword
It's sound, coz that's all I could afford.
Sean smiled at me and gave me a grin,
I gave a sigh, 'coz I knew he'd win.
A come back now is just in sight,
I need to think and slip in my knight

A game I hoped I'd someday win,
But this loss I'll take upon my chin.
I lose to you as you did Gan-Gan,
You had the strategy, you had the game plan.
I never got to beat you yet,
But that's not what makes me most upset.

Dedicated to Sean McKeown by his niece Marie McKeown

Fr Paul writes: On Friday 11 November, I received the news that Kevin Moreton died. Kevin's funeral Mass will take place here on Thursday 24 November. Please keep Kevin in your prayers along with the Holy Souls.

At long last the house is taking shape. It is my intention, that after Christmas I have open house so that you may come and see where I live and to view our Parish Office. I also want to thank you for your 'welcome' and support over that last month or so. It is always hard when moves take place. With God's helping hand we will carry on this journey together.

Over the last few weeks you may have noticed that several trees and shrubs have been cut back. This work has been carried out by the Diocese enabling us to comply with Health and Safety regulations.

On Monday, the 'Little helpers' are coming to put our lights up as we prepare for the Festival of Christmas.

Starting from Wednesday 30 November, a good friend of mine Marie Kelly will be leading reflections of the main characters of the Advent Season. These discussions 7.30pm until 8.45pm. For those who would like to come to Mass beforehand, Mass will be celebrated at 7pm throughout this Season.

Over the last few weeks I have been talking to as many as I can week day Mass congregation about moving the 9am Mass to a later time. There are many reasons for this change. Firstly, the mornings are getting darker, the traffic is very heavy, due to the school congestion. As the winter sets in the roads and footpaths can be frosty even icy for the many who travel on foot. And so from the First Monday in Advent our morning Masses will move to 10.00am Monday to Friday. On Saturday, the Mass time will be at 10.30am with the Sacrament of Reconciliation between 9.20am and 9.50am. In this way we are opening both Mass and Reconciliation. I believe this will give opportunities for the regular weekday congregation and to those who are working through the week. The format of the weekdays and Saturday mornings will remain the same, being exposition of the Blessed Sacrament followed by Morning Prayer and Mass. I'm aware that some of you may find these changes little difficult. Please be assured that I will review this arrangement in early 2017.

As you leave Mass, next weekend you will receive an envelope for our church student fund. I know you are a very generous parish. And I thank you for your support. Be assured that you are in my daily prayers.

Have a good week, Fr Paul.

OUR NEW TELEPHONE NUMBER

0151 721 3035

From Fr Ravi... Dear Fr Paul, I was deeply touched by the outpouring of love and kindness that I experienced from our wonderful people at St Winefride's on Friday night. Only Neston can throw a party like that.... Along with you, the presence of other clergy, Mgr Chris, Canon John, Rev Alan and Deacon Mike, made it all so very special. Thank you to those who came that night, to all those unable to attend and to all those who contributed so generously towards the evening. I was touched by the many meaningful gifts and cards, including your big cheque! I'm humbled by your generosity, grateful for your cooperation and understanding during my pastoral ministry and am hopeful of your continued friendship and love. I wish you, Fr Paul, and all parishioners the very best as I ask you to keep me and people of Runcorn in your prayers! St Winefride's: as I've told you before - 'I'll never find another YOU' - may God bless us all, Runcorn Ravi

Bereavement Service: Sunday 13 November at 2pm. If you have lost a loved one especially in the past year, do join us as a community as we spend time in prayer and reflection, supporting one another as part of our loving parish family. All are welcome.

Eucharistic Minister and Readers' Meeting: Monday 7 November at 7:30pm. If you are currently a Reader or EMHC please do try and attend – we will be discussing some changes that have been introduced and will be looking at supporting our Advent and Christmas Masses. Little Church: We are in need of people to help run Little Church or there is a danger that it will either take place fortnightly or be disbanded altogether. Little Church has been an important part of our parish community at St Winefride's for over 20 years and has always relied on the generosity of volunteers. To help with the continuation of this vital part of parish life and to help with the spiritual development of our young parishioners, please consider volunteering. For information on what helping at Little Church entails, please contact Veronica Casey on caseyvac@hotmail.com A new rota is now available online and in the sacristy.

Gardening: The gardening season is now coming to a close and I think we can all agree that the volunteers have done a wonderful job over the last year. It would still be nice if we had a couple more volunteers to share the work load. Also, if anyone has a good serviceable lawnmower or petrol strimmer that is currently not being used perhaps they could consider donating it for use in the church grounds. Contact, David McNulty - 336 1959 or Eric Wallace 07738011745 or Fr Paul.

CWL Annual Bereavement Mass: Thursday 17 November at 7pm. This will be followed by the Section Meeting in the hall. Could members please bring their contribution for the Christmas Hampers.

INCLUDING YOU - Acting Together for One World in Peace

The reactions to the terrorist attacks and to the arrival of refugees in Europe in 2015/16 suggest that One World Week needs to draw on our tradition of seeking to bring people together to hear each other's perspectives and share common values. The current situation calls for us to redouble our efforts to pursue this agenda by encouraging groups to work together locally to inspire citizens and each other to build a culture of inclusion.

An article in the Guardian in early 2016 encapsulated that need and emphasised the timeliness of this theme:

"Diversity, as experienced across Europe, by Europeans and non-Europeans alike, is the next looming horizon. It is a compelling, gripping transformation – a story that we are all part of, and one we should start talking about in new ways." Nougayrède, (5.01.2016)

We need to address the question of "how a hopeful future can be built on the new diversity" (Nougayrède, 2016)

Treasure Unlocked by Love

That you have made us in the image of your own mystery thanks be to you, O God.

That in the soul of every human being there are depths beyond naming and heights greater than knowing thanks be to you.

Grant us the grace of inner sight this day that we may see you as the Self within all selves.

Grant us the grace of love this day that amidst the pain and disfigurement of life We may find the treasure that is unlocked by love, that amidst the pain and disfigurement of our own lives we may know the richness that lies buried in the human soul.

Open to all who are interested in this subject! Please bring a packed lunch.

Looking@Matthew: St Luke's Parish Hall, Frodsham, Tue 15 Nov, 7pm - 8.30pm. Ideal for all, but especially those catechists working with Children's Liturgy and RCIA groups. A PRAYER FOR PRISONERS

Lord, you offer freedom to all people. We pray for those in prison.

Break the bonds of fear and isolation that exist.

Support, with your love, prisoners and their families and friends, prison staff and all who care.

Heal those who have been wounded by the actions of others, especially the victims of crime.

Help us to forgive one another, to act justly, love mercy and walk humbly together with Christ in his strength and in his Spirit, now and every day.
