LITTLE CHURCH: Children's liturgy will take place during the family Mass at 10.30am

Pope Leo reflects on the meaning for all of us of the Feast of Sts Peter & Paul: Even today, the Lord, who died and rose again out of love, makes himself present through his witnesses, reaching the centres and the peripheries, the capitals and the most remote regions, through the voices, faces and courageous choices of those who have responded to his call to “Follow me!” [...] Dear friends, perhaps Peter and Paul could not have been more different from one another. They differed in background, upbringing and character, not only before but also after they were called, for the one Lord did not make them the same. Peter and Paul understood and proclaimed the Gospel, each with his own distinctive voice; and the Holy Spirit, in inspiring the biblical authors, did not want their differences to be hidden. Indeed, these differences are presented to us as good news. Within the College of the Apostles, Peter and Paul were not adversaries. On the contrary, in a sense they became the symbol of the many other diversities that the one Spirit unites into a single whole. In this way, the patron saints of the Church of Rome experienced the challenges of communion; they knew it, served it, and proclaimed it as a sacrament of divine life. Their witness has contributed decisively to ensuring that the Christian presence in history is directed not toward dominion, but toward service, unity and reconciliation. May the Lord, through the intercession of Saints Peter and Paul, grant us the grace to appreciate ever more deeply the catholicity of the Church, to recognize its value in fostering fraternal encounter among individuals and peoples, to avoid whatever erodes or harms communion, to persevere on the ecumenical path and in attentive and honest dialogue with all.

LITTLE CHURCH: Children's liturgy will take place during the family Mass at 10.30am

Pope Leo reflects on the care of migrants during his apostolic visit to Lampedusa: The parable of the Good Samaritan describes a story that continues to speak to us [...] The parable tells us that love is always rooted in freedom, and freedom lies in the decisions we make. There are also those who choose not to be a neighbour and those who choose not to make a decision. [...] There is no love of God without love of neighbour, and there is no neighbour if I do not draw near. To pause, to be moved, to bend down, to weep before another's pain — as Jesus did — means entering into the dynamic of love, the very movement in which God has revealed himself. My dear friends, those who allow themselves to be drawn into this dynamic of compassion and mercy begin to live differently, to be citizens in a different way and to work differently. Then the civilization of love — the one envisioned by my holy predecessors John XXIII, Paul VI and John Paul II — can truly emerge. Like the Good Samaritan, we can always change our plans and direction. More than the Good Samaritan, we have the resources and opportunities to give hope a concrete, historical reality. [...] We, too, must recognize that “the civilization of love will not arise from a single or spectacular gesture, but from the sum total of small and steadfast acts of fidelity that serve as a bulwark against dehumanization” (Encyclical Letter Magnifica Humanitas, 213).

LITTLE CHURCH: Children's liturgy will take place during the family Mass at 10.30am

From Pope Leo's Angelus address last Sunday: God's generosity towards us is not naïve but wise. He sees within us the potential of a good that, at times, we ourselves might fail to recognize. For this reason, the Lord, who knows the soil of our hearts better than we, never ceases to believe in us — in who we are and in who we can become, day by day, if we entrust ourselves to him in faith. Thus, from the generosity and trust with which the seed is sown, and from the humility and openness with which it is received, the fruits of the Holy Spirit grow within us and spread. Saint Paul teaches that they are “love, joy, peace, patience, kindness, goodness, faithfulness, gentleness, and self-control” (Gal 5:22). How greatly our world stands in need of these fruits: to be filled with them and transformed by them! Let us therefore resolve, especially during these summer days of vacation, to make room for listening to, reading, and meditating on the Word of God, thereby fostering—together with rest and wholesome recreation — meaningful moments of silence and prayer. In this way, we shall return to our usual activities renewed in body and spirit, ready to proclaim the Good News of the Gospel and ever more capable of contributing to the growth of the Kingdom of God.

Please remember in your prayers all those who are sick including, Pat Cummins, Joe Hemington, Judy Howard, Maureen Knox, Ann and Paul Flanagan, Laurie Walsh, Maureen Morris, Barbara & Richard Debemham. LITTLE CHURCH:

Children's liturgy has now finished for the summer.

As we choose some holiday reading, we might reflect on these words of Pope Leo, addressed to a writers' conference last month: Writing, as you know, is an act of truth, of revelation, for it reveals who we are, what we believe and hope for, the world we strive toward and the future of which we dream. In this pursuit of truth, we sense that truth is subtle, revealing itself to us in our inner dialogue with God and in our open and respectful dialogue with our neighbours. We are never masters of the truth; if anything, it is the truth that "conquers" us. That is why I hope you will inspire others to be drawn to the truth, because you yourselves are drawn to it. When you write stories and develop your characters, you identify with them; you grasp their points of view, their emotions, their feelings, their attitudes. This is the great training ground of humanity that you allow your readers to experience, because, in a sense, readers "live" many lives in addition to their own. This helps us to discover different perspectives, to avoid treating our own views as absolute and to piece together, as in a mosaic, the outline of that truth which always transcends us. Finally, writing concerns God. It may seem a bold claim to make, but several theologians have reflected on and written about the harmony between the art of writing and the revelation of the biblical God. It is the very structure of Revelation that gives us the authority to do so. As Cardinal Radcliffe wrote, "For Christians, nothing human is alien to Christ. Every attempt to grapple with the fundamental questions of our lives — how to love, how to be just, how to be free, how to face suffering and death — helps us to understand Christ, the one who is most human of all.

LITTLE CHURCH: Children's liturgy has now finished for the summer.

Pope Leo speaking this week to a group of children's choirs about the significance of music: Music has the remarkable ability to bring different voices together in unison, where each one contributes something unique to the whole. In this sense, choir becomes an ideal symbol of harmony and cooperation. It is significant that Sacred Scripture and the Liturgy of the Church speak of "choirs of angels and saints" when describing the joy of heaven, not because they are literally singing all the time, but because united in love they behold God together and find in him the fullness of happiness. My dear young friends, as you were singing, did you notice how music drew all of us into an experience of something new, something that was greater than any one of us alone could create? This is the experience of beauty. It opens before us a new horizon, and it awakens within us the desire to go out to meet that horizon. When we set out toward it, we discover not simply something, but Someone. We encounter God our Creator. Just as we can follow a stream back to its source, the beauty of music invites us to encounter the one who is beauty itself. In this regard, continue to cultivate the gifts that God has given you, and allow them to lead you towards him. He is everything we are looking for in life, the one who alone can quell our restless hearts. Remember that you have been made for great things, and that this world is not enough to quench your thirst for meaning and happiness. Know too that the Holy Father loves you and prays for you, for your families and for your countries. In a particular way, I pray that peace may reign in your homes and in all those places throughout the world that continue to suffer from violence.

Please remember in your prayers all those who are sick including,

LITTLE CHURCH: Children's liturgy has now finished for the summer.

The Dimensions of Love – A Pilgrimage of Thanksgiving This September, Fr. Tom Cunnah has chosen to celebrate the tenth anniversary of his ordination by undertaking a remarkable pilgrimage across the Diocese.

This journey isn't just about celebrating an anniversary; he will be praying for future vocations across our Diocese, and raising awareness and vital funds for, Caritas' Family Support Services, helping Caritas to continue their support wherever it is needed the most.

Inspired by St Paul's words in Ephesians, that we may come to know 'the breadth and length and height and depth' of Christ's love (Ephesians 3:18)

Fr Tom writes; As I give thanks for a first ten years of Priestly ministry, I am glad to be able to make this ‘pilgrimage’ across our Diocese. Beginning on 3rd September, 2026, I hope to walk, over eight consecutive days, the roughly 130 miles from West Kirby to Ludlow. I hope that we might gather together along the route to pray and to celebrate the Mass and I hope that Parishes across the Diocese might be willing to support this effort making it the occasion to give generously to the work of Caritas Shrewsbury in supporting families.

The pilgrimage will begin with a Mass in church on Thursday 3rd September at 7pm followed by refreshments in church afterwards. On Friday 4th Fr Tom will begin his walk from West Kirby through to Hooton and then hopefully onto Helsby.

See porch for the poster and further details.

LITTLE CHURCH: Children's liturgy will resume on 13th September at 10.30am Mass

Pope Leo on the liturgical reforms of the Second Vatican Council: Sacrosanctum Concilium sought a renewed awareness of the value of the liturgy. Through the Church's ritual actions, whilst the memorial of the work of salvation is celebrated, the opportunity is provided to experience a true relationship with God, coming into contact with the salvific event. Since the gestures, the words of the sacred liturgy are critical to realizing this experience, the participation of the faithful cannot be passive. The liturgical reform promoted by the Second Vatican Council is thus firmly rooted in the living tradition of the Church. A correct understanding of it also enables us to reject the abuses that occurred in certain sectors of the Church during the post-Conciliar period, and which, unfortunately, still occur from time to time today, where some of the principles underlying the reform itself have been taken to extremes or misunderstood. In this regard, it is worth recalling that the Conciliar Constitution affirms that "Liturgical services are not private functions, but are celebrations of the Church, which is the "sacrament of unity", namely, the holy people united and ordered under their bishops. Therefore, liturgical services pertain to the whole body of the Church; they manifest it and have effects upon it" (Sacrosanctum Concilium, no. 26). It is therefore the primary responsibility of pastors, of bishops but also of each individual priest, to safeguard and promote a liturgy which, while respecting liturgical norms, shines with noble simplicity (cf. no. 34) and thus manifests the one, holy, catholic and apostolic Church. Such a liturgy will also be a fundamental vehicle for evangelization, the instrument of grace through which, as the Council teaches, we may learn to offer ourselves and, through Christ's mediation, be perfected in unity with God and amongst ourselves (cf. no. 48).

Please remember in your prayers all those who are sick including,

LITTLE CHURCH: Children’s liturgy will resume on 13th September at 10.30am Mass

Pope Leo invites us to reflect on the beauty and goodness of God's creation: as we accept the invitation to pause and reflect before the works of God, we begin the “Season of Creation” — a period of five weeks devoted to prayer and commitment to the care of our “common home.” On this Day, therefore, and in the weeks ahead, let us set aside a few moments to pause from the frenzy of our daily lives, in order to savour the profound harmony of which we ourselves are a part. Let us place in “silent mode” the many noises generated by human activity, so that we may hear the melodious voice of creation, through which God, the Author of all things, speaks to us.

This task of contemplation, which disposes us to an encounter with the Lord, is a first step towards an “authentic ecological conversion, where the effects of our encounter with Jesus Christ become evident in our relationship with the world around us”.

From contemplating creation and encountering its Creator, there arises an awareness of our particular place within God’s wondrous plan, and of the responsibility that we bear both personally and collectively for preserving the original harmony. Thus, as we become conscious of our shortcomings and failures, we can renew our commitment to restoring the relationships among all creatures according to the will of their Creator

LITTLE CHURCH: Children's liturgy will resume this weekend for the 10.30am family Mass

Pope Leo continues his reflections on the documents of the Second Vatican Council turning to the Pastoral Constitution Gaudium et Spes: Dear brothers and sisters, in our series of catecheses on the Second Vatican Council, we continue our reflection on Gaudium et Spes, focusing on the dignity of the human person. Human dignity flows from our identity as children made in the image and likeness of God.

We are endowed with the gifts of intelligence, for seeking truth; conscience, for recognizing our ultimate calling; and freedom, for choosing the good. Only through Christ do we understand that our personhood implies relationship and the call to give ourselves as a gift to God and others. May we therefore help each other to guard and defend our God-given dignity and journey together toward our heavenly homeland.

LITTLE CHURCH: There is NO Children's liturgy this weekend.

Pope Leo continues his reflections on the Pastoral Constitution Gaudium et Spes: The Council invites us to draw criteria and strength from God's creative plan, in which He willed that "all men should constitute one family and treat one another in a spirit of brotherhood", which is why "love for God and neighbour is the first and greatest commandment" which found its full revelation and complete fulfilment in Christ (cf. GS, 24). The perfection of the human person and the development of society must be regarded as closely interdependent: to set them against one another or separate them would be to render them meaningless. History, even recent history, clearly confirms this truth; we must therefore never tire of reiterating, in the words of the Fathers of the Second Vatican Council, that "the subject and goal of all social institutions is and must be the human person which for its part and by its very nature stands completely in need of social life" (GS, 25). From this perspective, Gaudium et Spes affirms that the diversity of people and peoples in the world must not be considered as a danger or a threat, but rather as a resource for enrichment and growth. [...] Dear brothers and sisters, this vision of humanity as a "community of people" is a valuable legacy that the Second Vatican Council has left us. It helps us all to engage in personal and communal discernment, so that we may responsibly evaluate today's social and political projects, based on the criteria of the dignity of the human person, social justice and free participation in constructing the common good. For the future of humanity depends on each person's commitment to collaborate with God and with their brothers and sisters in building a more humane world (cf. GS, 30).

Please remember in your prayers all those who are sick including,

Pat Cummins, Joe Hemington, Judy Howard, Maureen Knox, Ann and Paul Flanagan, Laurie Walsh, Barbara & Richard Debemham. LITTLE CHURCH: Children's liturgy is on this weekend at the 10.30am family Mass

A new heating system – an update: With the help and expertise of a committee of parishioners, we have taken several months to research the various options for replacing the heating system in the Church. Looking to the future of our parish, we have carefully researched possible options, including heat pumps and infra-red heating. We commissioned a feasibility report from a well-recognised, independent consultant who has advised that, to care for the fabric of our historic Church building, it will be necessary for us to fit a replacement gas heating system (which will involve us having to lay new gas pipes). With that conclusion, the Diocesan Board of Finance has now approved the budget for us to replace the Church boiler and gas pipework. The work is being properly tendered to ensure that the Parish's funds are best used and the work will begin soon.

Please remember in your prayers all those who are sick including,

Pat Cummins, Joe Hemington, Judy Howard, Maureen Knox, Ann and Paul Flanagan, Laurie Walsh, Barbara & Richard Debemham. Harvest festival: This Sunday 26th September is the Special Day of Prayer for the Harvest. Donations for the food bank welcome.

CAFOD Family Fast Day Appeal This Harvest: Family Fast Day is on Friday 2nd October. Put your faith into action and share the Lord's love by supporting our global neighbours experiencing shortages of food and safe water. Your gift can support children like Tayla in Zimbabwe to stay in school by helping communities and schools provide nourishing meals, improve access to water and grow food in school gardens. Please use the CAFOD envelopes in church which are available to take home this weekend. Or you can donate online at cafod.org.uk/envelope or via the QR code on the poster in the porch or call 0303 303 3030.

Recently deceased: Please pray for the repose of the soul of Pauline Lee who died on the 18th September. Please keep her daughter Rosalind and family and friends in your prayers.

Caritas – Fr Tom's Pilgrimage – The total amount that has now been banked by ourselves is an amazing £2156.50, this includes two cheques from parishioners for Caritas (Fr Tom) which were sent to them. In the next week or so we should have a complete total from Caritas which will include donations from other churches and donations paid via the QR code. Thank you for your kind generosity once again.

Missio Supporters: World Mission Sunday on 18th October is the 100th Anniversary. Pope Leo hopes every parish and community across the world will engage with the event. Missio supporters are asked to think how they could mark event in their local area/parish in a significant way e.g. a walk of witness, a prayer service, a commitment to support training of priests in developing world.

Knot just Knitters: The next session is on Wednesday 30th September, 1.30 – 4pm in the church hall. All very welcome
